

Daniel DeWald &lt;ddewald85@gmail.com&gt;

---

Fwd: Do You Know the Law When It Comes to Time Off To Vote?

1 message

---

Bob Kuzara <bobkuzara@gmail.com>
To: Dan Dewald <ddewald@smart1393.org>

Thu, Nov 3, 2016 at 11:45 AM

Please post

Bob Kuzara
Local Chairman 1393

Begin forwarded message:

From: SMART Union <ppimentel@smart-union.org>
Date: November 3, 2016 at 11:03:28 AM EDT
To: bobkuzara@gmail.com
Subject: Do You Know the Law When It Comes to Time Off To Vote?
Reply-To: ppimentel@smart-union.org

Federal law does not require that employers allow workers time off to vote, but the majority of states have at least some level of protection for employees taking part in the democratic process.

The specifics vary from state to state, but in each state, the rules apply to almost every type of workplace.

Employers are required to know the laws and to provide accommodations in line with the rules of that state.

Click here for a state listing from the AFL-CIO.

---

Sent via ActionNetwork.org. To update your email address or to stop receiving emails from International, please click here.